Release Date: 03/23/2015

LITTLE BIGHORN BATTLEFIELD ANNOUNCES SPRING HOURS AND FREE ENTRANCE TO KICK-OFF NATIONAL PARK WEEK

Effective Wednesday, April 1st, 2015, Little Bighorn Battlefield National Monument will be open daily from 8:00 AM to 6:00 PM. These spring hours will be in effect until summer hours begin on May 25, 2015. This includes Custer National Cemetery, the Indian Memorial and Seventh Cavalry Monument, and the Visitor Center/Museum. The self-guiding Deep Ravine Trail and tour road to the Reno-Benteen Battlefield will be open from 8:00AM -5:30 PM daily. Entrance fees are $10.00 per private vehicle or $5.00 per person if hiking or traveling by bicycle. Interagency, Senior, Military and Access passes are also available.

Entrance fees will be waived at Little Bighorn Battlefield and other National Park Service sites during the weekend of April 18-19th to recognize the beginning of National Park Week.

National Park Week, a program of the National Park Service, is an opportunity to engage families and communities in America's great outdoors, reconnecting them with nature and creating close to home opportunities for people to get outside, be active, and have fun.

Little Bighorn Battlefield National Monument, one of over 407 National Park Service units, interprets and protects the site of one of the most famous battles in American history, the Battle of the Little Bighorn.
